

“Savannah Presbytery’s pilgrimage to Montgomery gave me opportunities to face the darkness of slavery, lynching, and racism in the United States and be inspired by the courageous, faith-filled efforts of persons in the historic civil rights movement. The experience was all the more meaningful because I was able to process my feelings with brothers and sisters in the presbytery who, like me, want to embrace a future where people of all skin colors are respected and valued.”

Deanie Strength